REPORT FOR THE LANGUAGE TRAINING WORKSHOP

Anand Institute of Higher Technology helps students to improve their communication skills. It develops their soft skills. It also helps students to develop their employability skills. PEGASUS CLUB members inaugurated the language training program at Anand Institute of Higher Technology. This followed by speech by the Conveyor. The President formally welcomed all the dignitaries present on the dias and students. Convener mentioned the significance of PEGASUS and its aim of bringing students together with significant participation. The Principal briefed about the importance of the Language Training Workshop. He wished the members and participants on the success of the workshop.

The speaker of the workshop is Ms. Sharmila, Assistant Professor, Department of English, Hindu College. It was conducted to third year Engineering students. The session started at 9.00am on all the six days. A system and a headset with mike are given to all the students. She taught how to improve their communication skills using different software. She used Globarena software to teach soft skills. She commented through Hi Tech software from the admin system. Students observed & learned through her presentation.

Audio podcast were given to the students & the participants repeated the words to cement their knowledge. This method is called shadowing method. Finally she conducted a quiz through Kahoot software. Students learnt and gained surplus knowledge through this session.

Finally the Secretary of the club offered vote of thanks to all the members & participants for gracing the occasion by their presence.
